

Career Development Center by the Numbers

What employers are saying...

- Appalachian Students have proven in the past to be more prepared, polished and driven than many other universities we attend.
- We have a great working relationship with Appalachian and your students are always top notch.
- The caliber of Appalachian State graduates [we have] hired is exceptional.
- We have had a great success with hiring App grads. We always feel you have quality students.
- App State produces some of the best talent there is.
- Appalachian is the first place we look for graduates!
- Appalachian students have proven in the past to be more prepared, polished and driven than many other universities we attend.

2015-16
Event attendance
935 employer participants
6,226 student participants

2015-16
On-campus job placement
400 work study student employees
4,500 students worked on campus

Internships:
5,249 students participated in internships for academic credit in 2015-16 at 1,451 sites.
80.6% indicated internships, practicum, student learning, service learning or clinical experiences contributed positively to their personal & professional growth.

First Destination Data:

Employed within 1 year of graduation:
(of those tracked)
67.8% undergraduate
91.8% graduate

2014 - 15 graduates

Employed or enrolled in institution of post secondary education
84.5% undergraduate
99.7% graduate